

that could be calculated upon. A prominent result of this saving of time is a reduction of expenses in transporting coal from the mines to the seaboard. If the boats could carry 1,800 tons each upon the old canal, they can now carry 2,500 tons in a year; and, if $1.15 was a full rate for freight on the old canal, $1.50 cents is its full equivalent on the new. In a few days we can give some calculations on this subject, which will be interesting and valuable.

There were three hundred banks in operation in this State on the 12th of March last. The following changes have taken place since the previous report:

The Ogdensburg Bank (incorporated) charter expired 1st January, 1859, and will not be revived as an association.

H. J. Miner's Bank of Utica, Fredonia, is superseded by H. J. Miner & Company's Bank, Dunkirk.

Nasau Bank of Brooklyn—new banking association.

The reports of the last two will be found in the present statement.

The Medina Bank (individual) has merged in an association of the same name.

The Bank of Cohoes (association), Cohoes; Abraham Becker's Bank (individual), South Worcester, Otsego County; J. N. Hungerford's Bank (individual), Corning, and R. M. Goddard & Co.'s Bank (individual), Canton, St. Lawrence County, are organizing, and will probably be included in next report.

By a comparison with the returns of the New-York City banks for the same quarter, it appears that the items making up the statement are apportioned between the city and country banks as follows:

CITY BANKS, COUNTY BANKS. Total. $63,424,657 $42,289,183 $109,612,840
